MUHAMMAD RAYAN

Frontend Developer

About

I'm a frontend developer skilled in HTML, CSS, Tailwind CSS, TypeScript, and Next.js, currently expanding into backend development with Python. I'm enrolled in the Governor's Initiative for Artificial Intelligence, Web 3.0, and the Metaverse, a program focused on preparing future-ready tech professionals. At Comsoles Technologies, I'm gaining hands-on experience by building responsive user interfaces, collaborating with teams, and enhancing development workflows.
